

Transnational histories of public health in Asia

May 6 2008

China Medical Board, Center for History and Economics

Harvard University, Barker Center

12 Quincy Street

Room 133

May 6 2008

9.15am

Introduction: Lincoln Chen, Emma Rothschild

Session One: China

9.30am-11.00am

Mary Bullock, "Reconsidering Rockefeller Philanthropy in Republican China"

Henrietta Harrison, "Catholic Missions, Medicine and Miracles in Rural North China: The Story of Assunta Maria Pallotta"

Commentators:

Bridie Andrews Minehan

Caroline Reeves

Session Two: The League of Nations and Japan

11.15am-12.45pm

Sunil Amrith, "The Internationalization of Public Health in South and Southeast Asia, 1919-39"

Ian Miller, "Fear and Loathing in Niigata: Cholera and the Birth of Japanese Public Health Administration"

Commentators:

Sugata Bose

Yusuke Dan

Lunch: 12.45pm-2.00pm

Conclusions

2.00pm-3.30pm

Charles Rosenberg, Keizo Takemi, Lincoln Chen, Emma Rothschild